LAURENTIAN

BANK

Customer satisfaction is a top priority at Laurentian Bank Group*. That is why we have put in place mechanisms to receive your comments on our policies and service quality, and to respond promptly when there is a problem that requires us to take corrective action.

Ideally, problems should be resolved directly between the parties concerned, but that is not always possible. For those situations, the Bank has created the Customer Inquiries team to ensure customer experience, provide assistance to customers upon request, and to communicate, when necessary, with the authorities concerned.

Laurentian Bank Group* is committed to several voluntary banking industry codes designed to protect consumers, and which describe the rights and responsibilities of the banks and their clients. These include

- » the Online Payments Code,
- » the Canadian Code of Practice for Consumer Debit Cards,
- » the CBA Code of Conduct for Authorized Insurance Activities,
- » and others.

For all information concerning the voluntary codes of conduct applied by Laurentian Bank Group, please consult our web site: www.laurentianbank.ca/voluntarycodes

If you have comments or complaints concerning our services, fees or confidentiality of personal information, we suggest you follow these steps:

Step 1:

Start by contacting your branch manager or the Laurentian Bank Telebanking Services:

Phone: 514-252-1846 or toll-free 1-800-252-1846

Email: www.laurentianbank.ca under the "Contact us" section.

Step 2:
