Montréal, June 27, 2011 – Laurentian Bank is proud to announce that the annual edition of its golf tournament in Québec City at the Club de golf Cap-Rouge was successful in raising $15,000 for the Carrefour des enfants de Saint-Malo. This organization works to combat socio-affective poverty by offering disadvantaged children aged 4-12 a place to come together, be heard and enjoy a sense of belonging.

“Once again this year, we had the opportunity to welcome more than 150 clients, business contacts and employees for an enjoyable day on the links,” underlined Luc Bernard, the Bank’s Executive Vice-President of Retail and SME Financial Services. “At the same time, participants had the chance to show their support for an organization that is really making a difference and is recognized for the value and excellence of its interventions. This event is perfectly aligned with Laurentian Bank’s commitment to assisting organizations within the communities in which it operates.”
