Montréal, August 13, 2010 – Laurentian Bank is pleased to be actively participating for the fourth consecutive year as a Presenter of the International Balloon Festival of Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu. To be kicking off tomorrow, this anxiously awaited and favourite event of balloon enthusiasts from near and far will feature no fewer than 115 colourful balloons, along with a wealth of other diversions of all kinds. The Bank is inviting the public to take part in the festivities and the various activities it will be presenting.

Among the attractions to be enjoyed at the Festival is the Laurentian Bank Little + animation area, which will be made even more appealing this year with renewed activities and décors. For its part, the Laurentian Bank Little + House will be decked out in vibrant colours and offer children an opportunity to transform themselves with makeup, amusing hairdos and original costumes, and then to admire their new look in decorative and distorting fun-house mirrors. Youngsters will also be able to enjoy an array of other fun diversions on-site, including family photos on the Laurentian Bank Giant Chair, Fishing for Numbers, the Sandbox, the Balloon Booth, as well as the 1, 2, 3, Go! course for little ones aged 0 to 3.
